

Data protection: client data

I hereby authorise Baloise Insurance Ltd (hereinafter referred to as “Baloise”) to gather all information required for the purpose of assessing this application, executing the policy (including the processing of claims) and continuously optimising products and services.

In particular, Baloise is authorised to

- disclose information to reinsurers, co-insurers and other parties involved, both in Switzerland and abroad, as well as to companies in the Baloise Group for data processing;
- obtain relevant information from and inspect the records held by the authorities, private insurers (e.g. previous insurers regarding the claims experience) and third parties. This consent applies irrespective of whether the insurance contract is concluded or not.

Baloise grants other companies belonging to the Baloise Group access to the basic contractual information. This information may also be used within the Baloise Group for marketing purposes.

If the undersigned does not wish to receive promotional information, he or she must notify Baloise Insurance Ltd, Customer Service, Aeschengraben 21, P.O. Box, 4002 Basel, of this in writing.

The undersigned has the right to request that information (stipulated by law) on the processing of data relating to him or her be provided by Baloise.
